

LastPass Partner Program

Drive profitability and build stronger relationships by delivering secure, effortless, and efficient password and identity management solutions—while enjoying high margins and long-term growth opportunities.

Boost your customer's security and efficiency with password management

Passwords are a constant pain point for businesses, creating security vulnerabilities, frustrating employees, and wasting valuable time. Many companies struggle to manage passwords effectively, leaving them exposed to cyber threats and productivity losses. For partners, this challenge presents a powerful opportunity to offer a trusted, proven solution that solves a universal problem. By joining the LastPass Partner Program, you can tap into this demand, deliver a top-tier password and identity management solution, and grow your business with a leading security solution

You need a simple, secure way to handle passwords, so you can put the real focus on your business.

80%

Of data breaches are the result of weak, reused, or stolen credentials.

11 hrs

Time spent on remembering and resetting passwords each year.

35%

Employees who report sharing passwords regularly with a co-worker.

60%

Small businesses close within 6 months of falling victim to cyber attack stolen credentials.

Our partner network

Partnering with LastPass means joining a global community dedicated to delivering top-tier security, productivity, and peace of mind. The LastPass Partner Program empowers partners worldwide to provide secure, seamless, and efficient password and identity management to their customers holistic security coverage, for a fraction of the cost of SSO integrations.

MSP

Streamline security management to attract new deals and drive growth with a multi-tenant platform built for seamless deployment.

Cloud marketplace

As an AWS ISV Accelerate partner, LastPass enables AWS sellers to earn quota retirement by co-selling LastPass Business solutions.

Reseller

Enhance your security portfolio to attract new deals with organizations of all sizes and drive business growth.

Technology alliance partner

Gain an edge by integrating with the industry's top-rated password manager, enhancing security and strengthening your solutions.

Distributor

Drive growth with a trusted, easy-to-implement solution that opens new revenue streams and simplifies security management.

Why partner with LastPass

LastPass Partners benefit from collaboration, repeatable growth opportunities, product advances, and robust support, while your customers gain access to a trusted, user-friendly password manager that keeps credentials protected, private and always within reach.

Best-in-class solution

As the original password manager, LastPass has a 15+ year track record of reliability, success and product innovation that stands alone you need.

Support profitability goals

LastPass Partner program is designed to maximize margins, expand relationships and drive recurring revenue, giving partners a clear path to sustainable growth.

Frictionless experience

LastPass is committed to seamless integration and ongoing sales, marketing and customer support, empowering Partners to succeed at every step.

For every password, we're your partner

Strengthen your customer relationships and increase profitability by joining the LastPass Partner Program today.