

Finance is focused on reducing risk, while integrating their IAM infrastructure sensitive data in the business: money. Finance is dealing with higher stakes than most verticals, which inevitably impacts how they manage employee access and authentication.

Financial service organizations

70% Finance

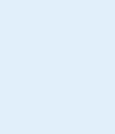

Reducing risk is a priority.

.......

66% Overall Average

Our Take: Due to the high sensitivity of the data and the associated compliance mandates in finance such as the

to my organization

(BSA) and the EU's Fifth Anti-Money Laundering Directive (5AMLD), it's no surprise that reducing risk is a higher IAM priority for finance than most.

Financial Action Task Force (TASF), Bank Secrecy Act

35% Finance

Hackers have gained access

31% Overall Average

all verticals at an average of $ US 18.3 million per year.1

Our Take: However, when it comes to hackers both the institution and their customers, and gaining access, finance is struggling. Finance has historically been a target for a breadth of attacks, experience the highest cybercrime costs out of

57% Overall Average

Our Take: In terms of improvements, finance ranks integrations at the top of the list, which offer a holistic

Integrating security infrastructure is my biggest area for improving.

view of user access and authentication to help reduce the unsettling percentage of hackers gaining access.

17% Finance

65% Finance

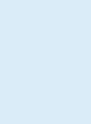

Lack of budget for IAM is a challenge.

Our Take: One area where finance is not struggling is lack of budget. Finance acknowledges the high risks

55% Finance

48% Overall Average

24% Overall Average

Our Take: In terms of where that budget is going,

MFA is the most invested in technology. This is likely method to increase the security of every login attempt.

Our Take: Finance prioritizes password management

10% more than other verticals, likely because their management will help finance securely manage and employees are sharing sensitive credentials. Password share passwords to meet their objective of reduced risk.

and Technology (NIST), which recommend MFA as a due to standards from the National Institute of Standards

I've already invested in MFA.

of managing money and are spending as much as 14%

of their annual IT budget on cybersecurity programs.²

I'm planning to invest in password management.

22% Overall Average

32% Finance

I need an integrated system to manage, monitor and set policies.

Our Take: In their ideal IAM solution, finance wants an

44% Overall Average

58% Finance

FOR FINANCE:

easier to achieve.

Consider IAM technologies that offer a variety of integrations for

MFA across applications, workstations, and VPN is a simple way to reduce risk and also makes audits and compliance mandates integrated way to manage user access and authentication, simplify managing IAM across the organization for finance.

which aligns with their integration priorities. This will

Unite IAM wherever possible. A unified view of employee access and authentication

OUR RECOMMENDATIONS

Add MFA everywhere.

Focus on integrations and flexibility. complete flexibility to work with your tools of choice.

better enables the business to prevent potential risks.

Learn more: https://www.lastpass.com/products/identity

Sources:

1. https://www.accenture.com/us-en/about/security-index?src=SOMS#block-insights-and-innovation

03.11.2020/PDF/LMI1260